Library & Resources

The Genealogy Room (Resources Room) with its library is located on the 1st floor of the Invercargill Public Library and is open every Wednesday 11am~1pm and for about 1 hour prior to afternoon/evening branch meetings. This provides an opportunity for research, or to seek information on any aspect of genealogical activity.

Some of the book library material is REFERENCE ONLY. This allows resources to be available to members for researching. Other books and magazines are available on loan to members of the Southland Branch for one month. Please see the Librarian so that books can be issued correctly. The microfiche collection is not available for loan.

A day fee of $3 may be payable for non members of the branch.

NEW ZEALAND SOCIETY OF GENEALOGISTS Inc.

The Southland Branch is part of the New Zealand Society of Genealogists, but joining the Southland Branch does not mean that you are also a member of the national body; a separate subscription is required. The benefits of joining the New Zealand Society are many :

- You will receive the Society's magazine (The New Zealand Genealogist) every two months.
- Access to a greater range of resources : library books, microfiche, overseas magazines, specialist advisors dealing with problems in the UK, Ireland and Europe, postal research services, and cheaper access to the English Births, Deaths and Marriages.
- Use of the NZSG Kiwi Collection with over 9 million records: exclusive to members.
- An annual conference is held, with excellent speakers brought to New Zealand from overseas.

Application forms are available from the Southland Branch Secretary, or by writing to :
New Zealand Society of Genealogists
P O Box 14036, Panmure
AUCKLAND 1741.
